

SCHOOL ACCREDITATION

School accreditation is a voluntary process that signifies the school administration and staff are committed to increasing student achievement through ongoing Spalding Staff Development.

Benefits of SEI Accreditation

- Increases student achievement.
- Provides evidence that the school staff has met rigorous external standards for The Spalding Method[®] of language arts instruction. Spalding teacher training is accredited by the International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council. (IMSLEC)
- Qualifies SEI-certified school staff to conduct on-going, on-site professional development in language arts.
- Provides School and Certified Staff Recognition (listing on Spalding website, IMSLEC Directory, and SEI publications.)
- Authorizes use of the SEI and IMSLEC logos and the accreditation statement on school publications.
- Places Accredited Schools on parent referral list.
- Confers a 25% discount on SEI instructional materials
- Affords Opportunity to influence development of instructional materials.
