

Mid-year Instructional Checklist for Grade 1 Teacher Guide Applicable for Weeks 20-24

This checklist is intended to help classroom or home educators analyze their instruction to determine if they consistently implement the actions listed in the Checklist and the Teacher's Guide. Behaviors that reflect the Spalding philosophy are listed first because they are the foundation of The Method. Observations of experienced teachers have identified actions that frequently need refinement. These are highlighted. There will be a fourth-quarter checklist posted at the end of the year. Send questions to our Spalding Forum.

Philosophy
Do I ...
1. Make children's physical and mental well-being a primary concern?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure that children's feet rest comfortably on the floor. • Ensure that children's arms rest comfortably on the desk. • Have all children face the front for whole group instruction. • Maintain a well-organized classroom. • Praise children for good performance. • Demonstrate a positive feeling tone.
2. Have high expectations for children of differing ability levels?
3. Consistently encourage higher-level thinking by all children? Examples:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "In the word began, why does the e say /e/? (spelling example) <li style="background-color: yellow;">• "Why does each sentence need a noun and a verb?"(writing example) <li style="background-color: yellow;">• "What is the difference between narrative and informative writing?"(reading example)
4. Provide direct, sequential instruction?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use the Collins Model to model, check understanding, coach, scaffold/fade. • Follow the sequence in the First-Grade Teachers' Guide.
5. Consistently provide multisensory instruction?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have children see, say, write, and read phonograms, words, etc. (spelling example) • Have children compose oral/written sentences and read their own. (writing example)
6. Encourage active participation by all children in each lesson?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have children say phonogram sounds in unison? (spelling example) • Have children read decodable books in unison? (reading example)
7. Demonstrate diagnostic teaching?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During OPR, stop to correct mispronunciations. (spelling example) <li style="background-color: yellow;">• Identify handwriting needs from WPR. (writing example) • Rephrase or reteach following inappropriate student responses. (all subjects)
8. Demonstrate integrated language arts instruction?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use spelling words to teach pronunciation, rules, grammar, and reading. • Demonstrate the connection between spelling, writing, and reading lesson objectives.

Do I ...
1. Provide daily Oral Phonogram Reviews ?
Step 1 (Delivering 10-11, 13, WRTR 39):
• Use maximum 30 cards at one time.
• Pass cards back to front, showing only one card at a time.
• Listen for precise pronunciation of sound(s) only , e.g., /b/, not cue words.
• Cover card if mispronounced, then pronounce precisely, e.g., /b/ (not /buh/).
• Have children repeat sound(s) precisely.
Step 2 (Delivering 10-11, 13, WRTR 39):
• Use maximum 30 cards at one time.
• Show phonograms a second time.
• Listen for precise pronunciation of only sounds in unison.
• Ask questions that clarify which pronunciation or phonogram to use?
• Have children respond and explain.
2. Provide daily Written Phonogram Reviews ? (Delivering 14-17, WRTR 41-42)
• Coach children's accurate and legible handwriting. Set handwriting focus for each WPR, e.g., "Today focus on beginning clock letters at 2 on the clock."
• Use maximum 30 cards at one time.
• Pronounce phonograms precisely.
• Require children to say sounds in unison. (no teacher voice overs)
• Give cues as needed.
• Require children to say sounds softly as they write. (no teacher voice overs)
• Give delayed feedback, e.g., write each phonogram from children's dictation.
• Have children evaluate their handwriting based on the day's focus.
